

Welcome To A
Place That's Close
To Everything, Yet
A Million Miles
From 9 To 5.

There's More "Life" In A Regency Built Home

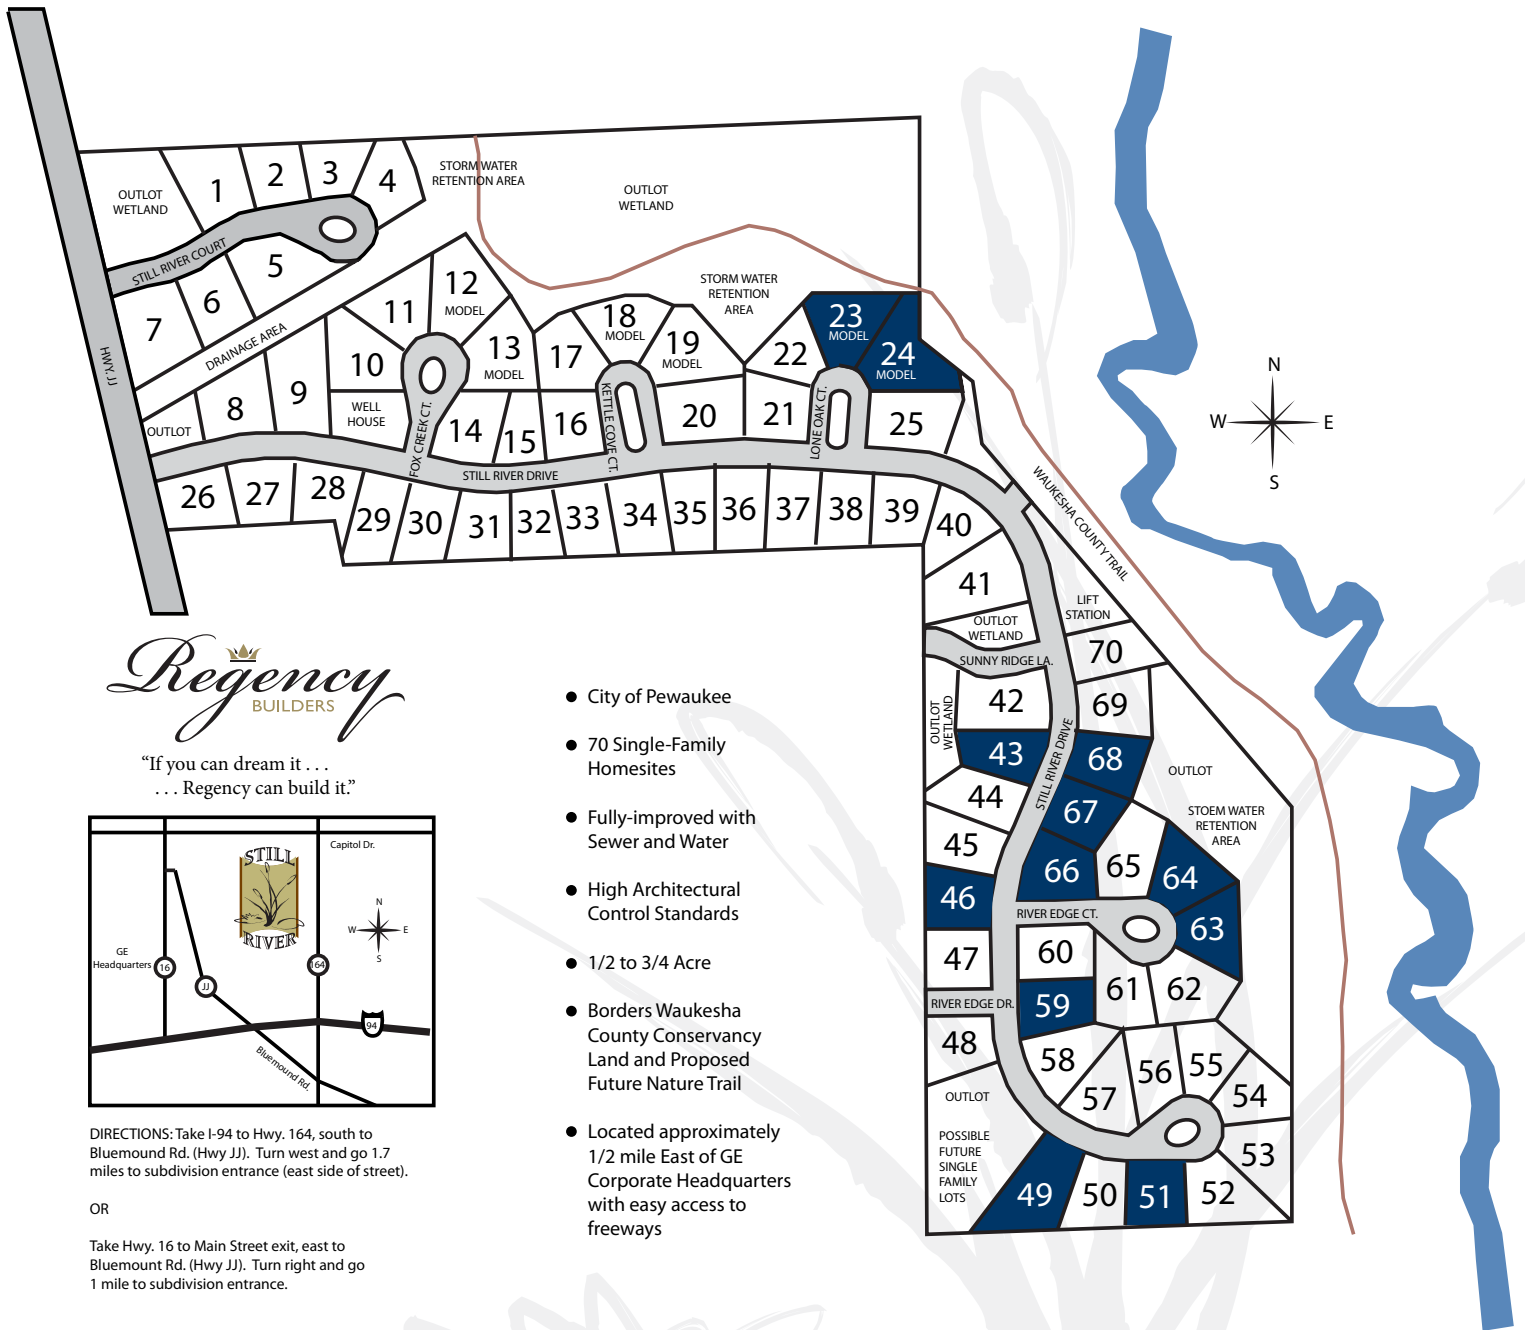

Still River is a community where not only are you surrounded by nature, but nature becomes a part of your family. With acres of open space, a walking trail and a winding river, you'll be able to connect not only with the outdoors, but find a new setting in which to connect with your loved ones.

Set in the heart of Waukesha County, you'll still be only moments from major highways and everyday conveniences, and living in a region prized for its hometown hospitality and charm with small town appeal.

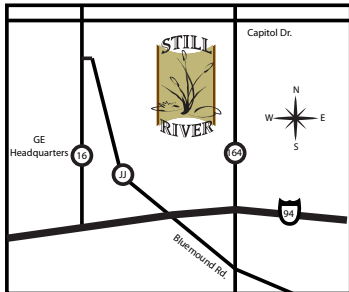

Parks. A water enthusiasts' dream. Shopping. Dining. Come home to a place where boredom is not an option.

an extraordinary lifestyle awaits you

"If you can dream it . . .
 . . . Regency can build it."

DIRECTIONS: Take I-94 to Hwy. 164, south to Bluemount Rd. (Hwy JJ). Turn west and go 1.7 miles to subdivision entrance (east side of street).

OR

Take Hwy. 16 to Main Street exit, east to Bluemount Rd. (Hwy JJ). Turn right and go 1 mile to subdivision entrance.

- City of Pewaukee
- 70 Single-Family Homesites
- Fully-improved with Sewer and Water
- High Architectural Control Standards
- 1/2 to 3/4 Acre
- Borders Waukesha County Conservancy Land and Proposed Future Nature Trail
- Located approximately 1/2 mile East of GE Corporate Headquarters with easy access to freeways

